

What Parents Say About the What To Do About Your Brain-Injured Child® Course

Great Course

"This course empowered me with the tools to handle not only my child's problem but to help him grow and learn to read. This course has truly helped me take responsibility in this area and has showed me the infinite possibilities available to my family and my child." Mother, USA

"I learned that armed with the right information, determination, and the love I have for my child, anything is possible. I had the latter; all I needed was The Institutes." Mother, USA

"My child can be fixed! With the knowledge, dedication, hard work, and love, my son has the chance to reach his full potential. I finally feel someone is listening. I'm so glad I found The Institutes on the Internet." Mother, USA

"I didn't dream I'd be exposed to this much information in five days. I am so pleased that I came. Our daughter's condition has changed our lives. This course surely will change it again." Father, USA

"Fantastic! My spirits are lifted. I know now exactly what to do. I am elated, breathing huge sighs of relief because I feel well prepared to teach my daughter." Mother, USA

Amazing Teachers

"The instructors were topnotch! The subject is of supreme importance. The course content was complete but not overwhelming. The materials, videos, handouts, and course outline were the best and most well organized that I have ever seen." Mother, USA

"The staff was wonderful. They were knowledgeable, kind, helpful and, most of all, quietly confident that they can help your child." Father, USA

"Not only do these professionals have explanations and treatment, but they care and it shows. They care for every child who has come and every child that will come in the future, and we (parents) all felt that." Mother, USA

"This is the first time I've attended a training institute where I actually felt the staff loved and believed in what they were doing and teaching. It was a pleasure to hear over and over again that a brain-injured child can be helped and had potential." Father, Denmark

"I found genuinely honest and courageous people presenting the truth about brain-injured people, and the potential to change the situation. In my experience, people who talk about difficult truths are often unpopular. It was a privilege to be exposed to the staff of The Institutes presenting its course."

Grandmother, Israel

Invaluable Learning

"The most important thing I learned is that there is something I can do to help my brain-injured child." Father, USA

"I learned that my son has a brain injury and that the treatments we have been doing for the last 2 1/2 years have only been treating the symptoms. Through this program we will go to the cause of the problem so that our son will be healed. I now understand the basic mechanics of the brain, and because of that I have more confidence than I did before coming to the course."

Mother, USA

"I learned that there is help for my child. This course has been such a blessing because teachers, doctors, and parents of other children with Down syndrome didn't believe this to be possible."

Mother, USA

"I learned that I can grow my child's brain and give him the best opportunity, time, tools, and love to help him grow into a well child."

Mother, USA

"I learned that the hope and faith we had for our daughter wasn't just an awful form of denial because we wouldn't accept what the doctors said." Mother, USA

Beyond Expectations

"I saw The Institutes as hope, but I never expected the knowledge I received. I am armed to march into battle. I'm sure I'll need reinforcements along the way, but I'm ready for whatever it brings. I see the light!"

Mother, USA

"It surpassed all of my expectations. I have abundant practical information and understanding of methods I can use to help my son."

Mother, USA

“I did not expect to be on the edge of my seat every minute of every lecture. I did not expect to get excited and gain this amount of knowledge.” Mother, USA

“This course was more than I expected, as it introduced new ideas, dispelled old myths, and provided understanding and new-found hope.” Father, USA

“It was everything I expected and a thousand times more. It is so wonderful to finally understand why the things I have been told to do don’t work and simply don’t make sense. It is wonderful to listen to so many people talk about the joy they have in helping our kids instead of slamming the door on them.” Mother, Australia

Changed Our Lives

“It has already changed the way I look at my child. I will go home and recognize her intelligence in a more refined way. I will increase my expectations of her progress. I will look at her as my child who happens to be brain-injured. Thank you for this wealth of information. It is very powerful.” Mother, USA

“You have given me the real ability to see through her eyes to ultimately understand what she needs, and finally to do something about what she needs in order that her intelligence may be expressed wholly and limitlessly.” Mother, USA

“My son’s life will change completely. Life as he knows it, how I know it, will be changed. We owe it to our son to have a chance to live, not just exist. I will finally know what it feels like to actually be a mother instead of a taxi driver, going from one therapy to another, and one doctor’s appointment to another. I will actually have time to spend with my child.” Mother, USA

“This changes our whole world – not just our daughter’s future, but the whole family. Now we have a battle plan and the appropriate weapons with which to fight. We now understand her amazing potential and the value of every wasted opportunity. Her environment will change to make it easier for her to succeed, eliminating many frustrations for her, my husband, and myself.” Mother, USA

“I will respect our daughter as the fighter she has been and continues to be for the first nine years of her life, and I will see my role as that of coach who recognizes her efforts.” Father, Israel

“This course has changed and saved our daughter’s life. Our mission as a family is clear now. Our purpose is to make our brain-injured child well, to give her the same opportunity we have, and to achieve her dreams.” Mother, USA

“This remarkable program and the proven philosophies that you revealed will change our whole family’s way of life. After some rest and discussion we will begin to implement a very doable and enjoyable program.” Mother, USA

Well Worth It

“Just the chance that my daughter will succeed and the hope that I have found were worth every penny or more.” Mother, USA

“How can you put a price on real information that can actually help?” Mother, USA

“After the second hour of the course on Monday, I called my mother and told her that just those two hours were worth the time, effort, and money.” Mother, USA

“Nothing in my life will ever compare to this week. You cannot put a price on the wellness of your child.” Mother, Canada

Advice to Parents

“Please don’t wait one more minute. Immediately get the book What To Do About Your Brain-Injured Child. Take the future of your child into your own hands, and throw the life preserver! This very well could be the answer for someone you love.” Mother, USA

“Don’t waste another day. Don’t go through years of miserable failure only to come full circle. This is the answer.” Mother, USA

“Do whatever it takes to get to the course. These five days will forever change your life and, more importantly, your brain-injured child’s life.” Mother, USA

“Forget everything you have been told in the past. This program is priceless.” Father, USA

“Run, don’t walk, to this course. If you have a child with a brain injury, you owe it to yourself and your child to give him this wonderful opportunity at normalcy.” Father, USA

“Don’t hesitate. Don’t wait. Don’t put it off. Every day you spend with your brain-injured child without this knowledge is precious time you have wasted.” Mother, USA

“Go to The Institutes. This might be the best investment of time and money you will ever make. For me it was.” Father, Latvia
